Warsaw, November 28.

ON the 26th past, the Senate continued sitting from 10 a-Clock in the Morning till three in the Afternoon, having under Deliberation the present Circumstances of the Kingdom. The two Great Generals, the Palatines of Cracovia, Sandomir, Kiovia, Podolia, Lublin, Minsk, Mazovia, and Rava, gave their Opinion, to signify to the King their great Sorrow arising from the unsuccessful breaking up of the late Diet; to beseech his Majesty, that he will be pleased to sit in this Juncture as Father of the Country; to take such Measures as shall be most Convenient for the publick Good; to preserve Peace and good Order both within and without the Kingdom; and to become humble Suppliants to his Majesty not to abandon them, but rather comfort them by his Presence; and repose himself on the Fidelity of his good Subjects. Yesterday the Governors of Gessu, Cojavis, Bresesk, Kiovia, Ploscow, Rava, &c. agreed to this Resolution of the Senators, and were admitted this Morning to kiss the King's Hand. To-Day the Ministers of State are to give their Advice on the present Proceedings; and 'tis believed the Senate will End their Session this Afternoon.

Berlin, Dec. 7. This Court has wrote a very pressing Letter to the Bishop of Munster relating to the Execution decreed against the County of Tecklenberg, advising that Prelate not to take upon him in any wise to proceed in that Affair, it being judged to have been determined rashly, and with precipitation. The Minister of Hesse-Cassel is frequently in Conference with the Baron d'Ilgen, concerning Religious Matters in the Empire, and the young Prince of Orange's Stadthouderhip. An Officer of the first Company of Guards, whose Wife was lately brought to Bed of three fine Boys, has taken that Occasion to beseech the King to do the Infants the Honour of being their Godfather; which Request, 'tis said, his Majesty has been graciously pleased to comply with, and designs to hand in Person.

Gibralter, Nov. 27. O. S. Captain Scott sailed from Gibraltar the 31st of last Month, with a Squadron of His Britannick Majestys Men of War under his Command. Arriving on this Coast, he sent Captain Stevens in the Winchester to look into Porto Specchia; and the Lord Vere Beauclair in the Lion to Leghorne for Intelligence. Himself in the Dragon, with the Leopard commanded by Captain Madley, proceeded for this Place, where he arrived the 2nd instant in the Afternoon. He immediately discovered, that the Revolution, a Ship in the Pretender's Service, lay in the inner Mole, but so surrounded with other Ships that he could not come to Anchor near her. He went to the Innick House, on prudence of getting Pratick, but was a Design to send to Mr. Davenant His Britannick Majestys Envoy to come to him, that he might receive from him what Information he could concerning that Ship. Mr. Davenant assured him, that Monroe her Captain lay ashore dangerously ill of some Wounds he had lately received, and that other Officers named Gardiner, Lodes, and French, lodged in the same House with him. The Gates being upon flenting, Captain Scott had just Time to tell Mr. Davenant he had Orders to seize that Ship, that as soon as he could get back to his own Ship he would go about the seizing of her, that he might depend upon her being in his Possession in half an Hour; and therefore that the Persons before mentioned might have an Opportunity of making their Escape when they should hear of her being seized, he sent him as soon as the Gates should be shut, to the Doge, and demand in His Britannick Majesty's Name, that they might be immediately secured, His Majesty having certain Information of these being Traitors and Rebels, and given Orders that they should be demanded from the Government of any Place where they might happen to be. The Ship was seized without the least Noise or Disturbance, with her Crew consisting of 58 Persons. The Doge answered Mr. Davenant, that he could not comply with his Demand without the Consent of the Senate and Grand Council which he would call the next Morning. The Senate not coming then to a Resolution, Captain Scott renewed the same Demand in the Afternoon the 23d, and likewise demanded the Sails and Powder belonging to the Revolution, which had been carried ashore; for she was designed to have been careened and refitted. The latter Demand was granted, but the Senate having not yet come to a Determination on the former, Forde has retired to a Foreign Minister's House, and Gardiner, Monroe, and French, to a Convent of Dominicans. Captain Scott intends to resist the Revolution, and as soon as she shall be in Readiness for the Sea, to send one of the British Men of War Home with her, putting her Crew on board that Man of War.
